Forecast for Monday 31 Jan 2022

Weather: Clear or sunny spells through the morning and afternoon, with occasional snow showers around, these mainly over northern hills. Increasing cloud through the late afternoon brings outbreaks of rain for the evening, preceded by briefly by sleet or snow over the higher summits, the rain becoming more persistent towards midnight.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: Around 40% in north but 75% elsewhere, falling to zero by early evening.

Low Cloud and visibility: Occasional cloud, but periods at times in north, above 600m through much of the day becoming periods or persistent above 450-600m through the late afternoon and early evening. Otherwise visibility very good falling briefly to a kilometre or so in snow showers, and later summit snow, and to several kilometres in evening rain.
